Yellow/Red

Current position:

Senior Coach

When I joined Equilibria:

The 4th April 2004

Why I joined Equilibria:

I want to help people to have a safer and more effective day at work and even better relationship with family and friends.

My professional background:

I started offshore in Norway 1974 and spent most of my time on the Norwegian shelf of the North Sea. The last 13 years I have worked as a Tool pusher and Senior Tool pusher. In 1986 I spent time with Northern Norway offshore Training Center teaching Drilling Technology and Well Control.

In 1998 I left Norway and worked at a number of International positions as Offshore Safety Advisor, HSE Auditor for a major drilling contractor and Area Manager for Training based in France covering Africa, The United Arab Emirates, Middle East and Europe.

My educational background:

University
Driller's School
Tool-pusher's school

My family and general interests/hobbies:

Wife: Helen
Children: Linn-Siren and Sandra

Hobbies: Mini farm in Sweden
Cabin in the mountains
My Boat in the ocean in summer
Playing piano and sax
